

Nancy Forsyth

Nancy Forsyth, a NARHA Registered Instructor, started her equestrian experiences at age five. She trained and competed at Watchung Stables in New Jersey and became a top rider in their Troops.

Nancy and her horse Honnee

Nancy was a board member and president of Central Jersey Horseman's Association for ten years. Competing with her horses, Nancy has won numerous awards in eventing, hunter/jumper and equitation classes.

An elementary art teacher for 35 years for both regular and special education students, Nancy also taught therapeutic riding in Allentown, New Jersey, and developed a NARHA therapeutic riding center in Staten Island, NY. Ms. Forsyth's resume also includes judging the NJ State 4-H Horseshow for the Disabled Division, and announcing at the Horse Park of NJ.

Nancy considers herself most fortunate to have reunited with the SPUR program after many years, having taught during a summer at the former Huber Woods location.

